

Handling Polarion Downtime / Major Incident (MI)

Polarion KB Article: Handling Downtime / Major Incident (MI)

1. Purpose

This document provides step-by-step guidance for handling Polarion downtime incidents, including Major Incident (MI) initiation, communication, escalation, and troubleshooting.

2. Trigger Condition

This procedure should be followed when:

1. Polarion is unavailable
2. Critical functionality is impacted for multiple users

	Procedure to follow	Action to perform
1	1. Initiate Major Incident (MI)	a. Initiate Major Incident (MI) Call Contact MI Team Initiate MI call - Knowledge Base Global PLM Toolchain (Admin) - blue.space b. Establish Communication Bridge Once the MI call is active: Connect Required Teams Ensure the following stakeholders are invited: IMS Team Polarion Support Team Business Stakeholders On Call meeting participants - Knowledge Base Global PLM Toolchain (Admin) - blue.space Use the infrastructure escalation matrix to involve the correct teams: Infrastructure Escalation Matrix (LZ2): https://bluespace.fmeone.com/spaces/KBGPTA/pages/103364680/Infrastructure+Escalation+Matrix+for+LZ2+-+Contact+Details
2	2. Trigger an email notification to:	Communication - Knowledge Base Global PLM Toolchain (Admin) - blue.space
3	3. Troubleshooting and Recovery	Follow the standard recovery procedure: • Follow procedure as described in Restart Apache Service - Knowledge Base Global PLM Toolchain (Admin) - blue.space • In case the recovery fails, proceed with procedure as described in Restart All Polarion Services - Knowledge Base Global PLM Toolchain (Admin) - blue.space Provide updates every 15–30 minutes
4	4. Incident Closure
5	5. After resolution:	After resolution: Confirm service restoration Notify all users via email Close MI bridge
6	6. Post-Incident Activities	Conduct Root Cause Analysis (RCA) Document findings in KB Identify preventive measures