

Moving and reordering of documents in confluence

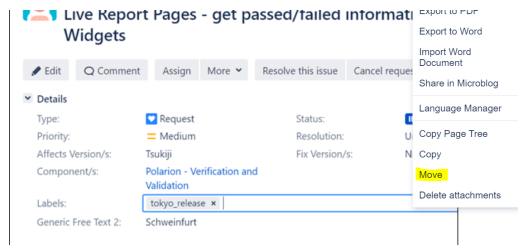

Moving of document from one page to another page:

Step-1: Open the document in the confluence.

Step-2: Click on the three dots at the top left.

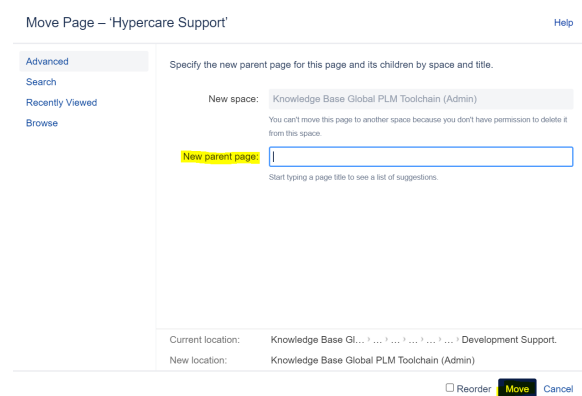

Step-3: In the drop-down menu, Select move.

2. During the hypercare, AO Support engineer takes care that the issues raised by the end user are related to the functionalities introduced by the latest release or not.

3. If the answer is "Yes" then no more end user support is provided but demonstration the functionality to the user so that

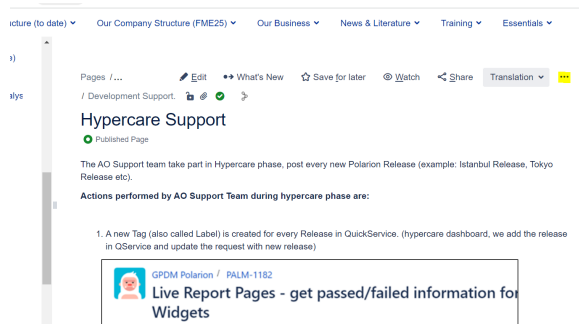

Step-4: In the new parent page field, Enter the name of the page to which you want to move the document and click on move. Thus, the documents will be moved to the page you have selected.

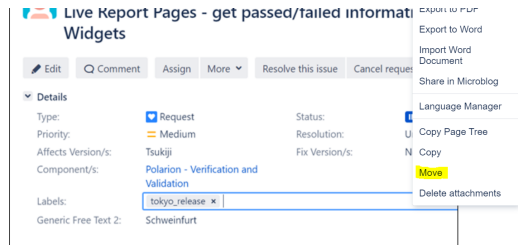

Reordering of documents inside the same page:

Step-1: Open the document in the confluence.

Step-2: Click on the three dots at the top left.

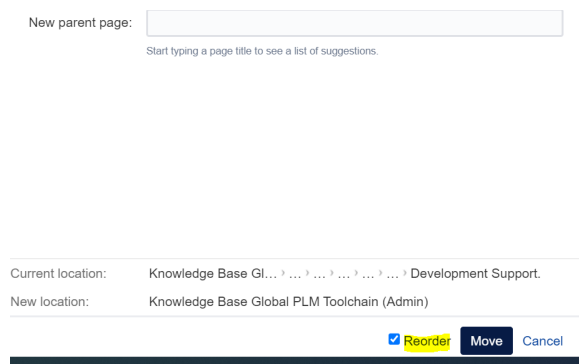

Step-3: In the drop-down menu, Select move.

2. During the hypercare, AO Support engineer takes care that the issues raised by the end user are related to the functionalities introduced by the latest release or not.
3. If the answer is "Yes" then no need and user support is provided for demonstration the functionality to the user so that

Step-4: Select reorder and click move.

Step-5: You can reorder the position of the document and click on reorder. Thus, the document will appear at the required position.

