A new joiner in AMS team would need to reach out to Miklos Spirko to get the Site Access to login to Siemens Support Center.

Once access is provided for GTAC, the AMS engineer would get the below mail:

Your request to join Site has been approved

Dear Muralidhar Y,

This email is confirmation that your request to join Site ID 0001506450 has been accepted by Miklos Spirko.

To access your product downloads, knowledge base articles or get support help, please log in to Support Center (<https://support.sw.siemens.com>) using your email address and personal password.

If you need further assistance with your Support Center account, please email the Global Support Team at global_support_sisw@siemens.com.

Sincerely,
Global Customer Support & Success
